June 11, 2013

Dear Randall,

On behalf of the NFPA® Electrical Section and the National Electrical Code® Committee, I take great pleasure in congratulating you on becoming a member of the NEC® Quarter Century Club. You join a select group of outstanding individuals whose contributions to the development of the National Electrical Code are truly worthy of this recognition. Your continuous service as a member of the National Electrical Code Committee for over 25 years is a benchmark, representative of your deep commitment and dedication to the advancement of electrical safety. Tireless volunteer committee members like you are the reason the NEC enjoys its stature of being the world's premier document on safe electrical installations.

Sincerely,

Mark W. Earley, P.E.
NFPA Chief Electrical Engineer &
Secretary of the National Electrical Code® Committee
